NIA's Silent Auction is a biennial event that offers an evening of competitive bidding and fundraising. This year, net proceeds from the event will benefit the following organizations.

Sunshine Kids is a nonprofit organization dedicated to children with cancer. Established in 1982, the organization is committed to providing positive group activities and emotional support for young cancer patients. Sunshine Kids provides a variety of programs and events, free of charge, for kids who are receiving cancer treatments in hospitals throughout North America.

The Foundation for Mechanical Insulation Education, Training, and Industry Advancement promotes the benefits of commercial and industrial insulation to outside audiences such as specifiers, architects, energy managers, plant operators, building owners, facility managers, government agencies, and others. The goal of the Foundation is to establish NIA as the recognized authority on the insulation industry and, at the same time, increase awareness of the need and benefits of insulation.

Silent Auction Instructions and Rules:

- Item descriptions are created from available information. Actual products may vary.
- The net proceeds from the Silent Auction will be split equally between Sunshine Kids and the Foundation for Mechanical Insulation Education, Training, and Industry Advancement.
- Each item will have a bid sheet in front of it. Bids are made by printing and signing your name and the amount of the bid in the minimum increments listed on the sheet. Once you sign this bid sheet, you are committed to purchasing that item unless someone outbids you.
- You may bid on any item more than once and you may bid on multiple items.
- Bids must be placed in accordance with the minimum bid values and increments stated on the bid sheet for each item. Incorrectly listed bids will be disqualified.
- Once time has been called, the bidding process is closed and bid sheets are picked up. No other bids will be considered or accepted.
- Winning bids will be announced once all auction item bids have been confirmed by NIA staff.
- Payment must be made immediately following the announcement of the winners. The winning bid must be paid in full during the Silent Auction by credit card or check made out to NIA before taking possession of the item.
- NIA is not responsible for shipping any of the items.
- Winning bidders will receive onsite auction items from NIA if possible. Otherwise, the donor is responsible for providing winners with auction items.
- As noted on bid sheets, certain items only ship within the United States.
