

Young Professional Advisory Committee (YPAC) Purpose, Objectives, and Action Items

Chairman: Justin Rispoli, Aspen Aerogels, Inc.

Vice Chairman: Cooper Killion, Shook & Fletcher Insulation Co.

Secretary: Rudy Nigl, L & C Insulation Co.

Purpose: To offer a forum for young professionals to grow leadership skills, network with peers, gain industry information, and provide fresh insights and feedback to NIA management and the Board of Directors.

Key Objectives:

1. Participate at NIA events and committees.
2. Increase the attendance in the Committee (YPAC).
3. Develop leadership and provide an opportunity to identify future leaders.
4. Confirm speakers and develop valuable programs for YPAC meetings.
5. Appoint one YPAC member each year to the Convention Committee.
6. Address the perceived value of young professionals' participation in NIA.
7. Provide NIA management and the Board of Directors with fresh insights, innovative ideas, and strategic advice on a variety of topics including: NIA meetings, educational needs, communication methods, industry recruitment, and NIA's Foundation.

Actions:

1. Help solicit new members to the Young Professional Advisory Committee (YPAC).
2. Actively promote participation in NIA activities (meetings and committees) to current and potential NIA members.
3. Expand industry knowledge by having speakers present at each YPAC in-person meeting.
4. Work on creating, maintaining, and updating a specific webpage for YP.
5. Hold 4 YPAC meetings and/or conference calls per year: in the winter, at NIA's Convention, at NIA's Fall Summit, and in the summer.