IT Best Practices to Protect Your Business

Date: Thursday, October 17, 2019 • Time: 1:00–2:00 p.m. EST

Technology has helped us in increasing efficiency and the bottom line with our businesses. However, we often over-look the risks associated with technology in this rapidly evolving landscape. Protect your company's data and reputation with the current I.T. best practices to implement for small to medium sized companies. Focus will be set on the four core topics of internet, security, data, and email.
