

NIA's Safety Excellence Award

2023 NIA Associate (Manufacturer) Member Application

A NIA Member-Only Program

Instructions:

Please complete this application and submit it with a check payable to "National Insulation Association" for the $250 application processing fee. Companies applying for the first time receive a discount of 50% and should send a check for $125. (Note: The NIA Board of Directors has kept the application cost down as a benefit to NIA members. NIA underwrites a portion of this program to help keep the application fees low.) This form must be received no later than October 13, 2023, at the address below. All completed applications and appropriate fees (make checks out to "National Insulation Association") should be mailed to:

Auman, Mahan & Furry
Attn: Gary Auman, NIA Legal Counsel
110 North Main Street, Suite 1000
Dayton, OH 45402-1738

You can also email your completed application to brl@amfdayton.com and call 703-464-6422, ext. 113 to pay the credit card rate ($255 for repeat applicants/$130 for first-time applicants) over the phone.

Please do not attach your safety program to this application. Instead, please answer each question in your own words based on what is included in your safety program. Please read each question carefully and be sure you respond to each part of any multi-part question. Please type your response to each question on a separate piece of paper.

UNLESS ATTACHMENTS OR COPIES OF YOUR PROGRAM ARE REQUESTED, THEY WILL NOT BE GRADED.

Only NIA Associate (Manufacturer) members are eligible to use this form. Associate members must be members in good standing for this application to be considered (i.e., your company's NIA membership dues must be paid in full by the time applications are judged and at the awards presentation). To check your company's membership status, please email membership@insulation.org. Please note that no exceptions will be made to this requirement.

Please complete all information. Incomplete applications and those without appropriate payment will not be considered.

Section 1: General Information

This safety recognition program is intended only to evaluate components of the applicant's safety program for best practices. We do not consider injury rates or OSHA citations in our evaluation. Even a company with the best safety program can run afoul of OSHA if it does not implement and enforce the requirements, policies, and procedures in its

Section 3: Company Safety Program Questions

1. Describe the procedures you use in your locations to identify potential hazards in each workplace. Include information as to how you engage your employees in this process and train them on hazard recognition. Include in your response items such as job site analyses (JSAs), standard operating procedures, pre-shift inspections and meetings, and management of change.
2. Describe, in detail, your procedures for accident investigation, including near misses and property damage. Include who initiates the accident investigation, team makeup, and what criteria are used to make these decisions. Factors may include the severity of injuries, or potential injuries, and damage to property or equipment. Detail the training of any personnel who may be assigned to perform an accident investigation. Please describe your procedures for conducting an accident investigation in detail. This may include, but not be limited to, the handling of witnesses, physical evidence, photographs, etc. If either the makeup of the investigation team or the procedure for conducting the investigation may change from incident to incident, please describe how and why this may occur. Also, discuss how you ensure that the root causes and recommendations drawn from the accident investigation are communicated and implemented after the investigation. Please attach a copy of your accident investigation form.
3. Please describe your procedures for complying with the requirements of the OSHA Hazard Communication Standard/Globally Harmonized System (GHS). Explain your policies and procedures for labeling, handling, using, and storing hazardous materials and how your company complied with OSHA's Hazard Communication Standard. Include how you identify secondary containers.
4. Please describe your drug- and alcohol-free workplace program, including return to duty, if applicable.
5. Please describe the types of powered industrial equipment your employees use and your training program to comply with the OSHA standards that apply to the use of that equipment type. Please identify the pieces of equipment your company uses and at which type of facility (i.e., manufacturing plant, fabrication facility, office building, etc.) Equipment examples can include powered industrial trucks (forklifts, stock pickers, etc.), aerial lifts, and/or mobile cranes.

Winners of NIA's Safety Excellence Award will be chosen on the basis of their safety program, means of communication and training, and company safety policy. Safety programs are not judged against other safety programs—only against an "ideal" program. Winners will be announced and recognized during NIA's 68th Annual Convention, April 17–19, 2024, at the Naples Grande Beach Resort in Naples, Florida.
